

Cinco De Mayo

By Luis Alonso

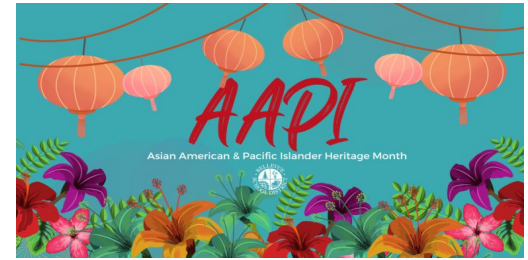

Cinco de Mayo is a annual celebration of the Mexican victory against the French at the Battle of Puebla. The main reason why it's celebrated so much is because that it was a really unexpected victory and it helped boost the morale of the Mexican people. Now due to popular belief Cinco de Mayo isn't Mexico's independence day and that it take a lot more years until Mexico would gain independence.

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month

By Zoe Alcause

Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month has officially started as of May 1st and focuses on the contributions, influence, and culture of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. Like the other appreciation months, it derived from Congress. In the 1970s, it began as the first ten days in May. Later in the 90s, George W. Bush passed Public Law 102-450, placing May as Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month. May was chosen to honor the Chinese immigrants laying down the transcontinental railroad tracks and the immigration of the first Japanese to America on May 7th, 1843. Happy Asian American Pacific Islander Month!

7th grade Outsiders Field Trip

By Thalia Chavez

On May 31st the 7th graders of East Avenue are going on a field trip to the vine to watch the movie The Outsiders. The reason that they are going is because the seventh grade classes have just started reading the book The Outsiders and will most likely be done with the book by then. We are also going on this field trip to celebrate the end of the year!!!! Also Remember to turn in your permission slip with an $8 check or $8 exactly.

Memorial Day

By Jacki C

Memorial Day is always on the last Monday of May. This year, it falls under May 29th. Memorial Day, originally known as Decoration Day, is a federal holiday celebrated all over the United States. It's about honoring and mourning the U.S.A. soldiers who have died while serving for our country. It was first celebrated May 5th, 1866; though it was first more widely known and celebrated May 30th, 1868. Veterans Day is a similar holiday, but that is for all the people who are or were in the military. Though, Memorial Day is only about soldiers who have lost their lives while serving. Some ways to honor Memorial Day are wearing red white and blue- not the flag, decorating a grave with flowers, or taking part in a tradition.

The Warriors Deliver A Chokejob

Brayden Kreitzman

Game 1 of the second round of the NBA Playoffs for the Golden State Warriors has commenced, at their home stadium in San Francisco. They had a very strong start to the game, taking a 10-2 lead, ending the first quarter ahead by 2, 31-29.

At the half, they ended up down by 1, 64-65. The Lakers and Warriors were both playing at a very balanced level throughout the game, going back and forth, staying within 5 points of one another. They ended the third quarter 96-88, as the Lakers had formed a sturdy lead which they would eventually keep for the rest of the game, but that doesn't mean the Warriors had no chance of winning.

With 18 seconds remaining, Jordan Poole had a chance to tie the game with a 3, making it 115-115. He made the shot, and it hit the rim, bouncing off of the backboard. After a foul, the last of many the Warriors had that night, the game was over, 117-112.

Fans are looking forward to the rest of the series, as the games were very exciting, with constant back and forth action between some of the best current players in the sport. Many hope for the Warriors, to come out on top, but it's leaning to the Lakers very early on. Can the Warriors stop them?

Breath of The Wild: Tears of the Kingdom

On May 12th 2023, Breath of The Wild: Tears of the Kingdom will release to the public. The first game made over a billion dollars, making it one of the highest grossing games to ever be made. Harry Potter Day!

By: Ava Neilsen

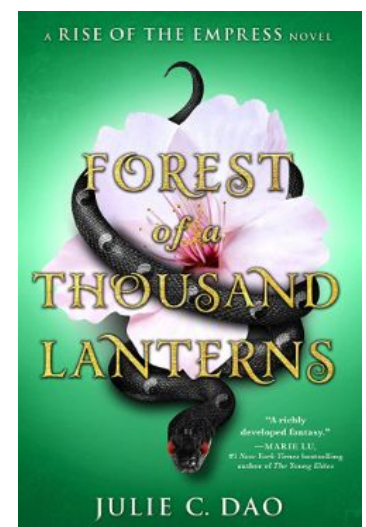

On May second was National Harry Potter Day! Harry Potter has touched the lives of so many people in the world and has made a whole world that people can escape and go to. Why this date you might ask? Because on May second is when the Battle of Hogwarts takes place. I will leave it at that in case people do not want spoilers. People have made Harry Potter so popular and worldwide over 500 million books have been sold, and 180 million in the US alone. Harry Potter has a lot of theme parks, at Universal Studios, The Warner Brothers Studio in London, and now a new theme park in Tokyo! So many people love Harry Potter, and it has been one of the best franchises of all time. There have been movies made of the books, and they all touch so many lives and give people ways to make friends, meet new people, and so much more.

Book Of The Month

By Emmie Visaya

It's May, which means it's Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month, in celebration of this, let's commemorate a book celebrating Asian culture! Snow White's story with a twist, Julie C. Dao's Forest of a Thousand Lanterns follows a young Asian girl, Xifeng, as she rises from a poor village girl, prized for her beauty, to empress of a kingdom. Fighting for love, and yearning for Power, Xifeng embarks on a remarkable journey of magic, gods, politics, and beauty.

Rated 13+ for suggestive topics, and disturbing graphics, Forest of A Thousand Lanterns is a great book for discussion but should be approved by an adult before reading. Brimming with dark magic, Forest Of A Thousand Lanterns is a banned book throughout many countries. Despite this fact, Forest of A Thousand Lanterns is a must read for all people.
